1 October 2015 (Continued)

14:15 – 15:15 Gridded Data Debate: Gridded data is one of those technical topics that seem to separate industry insiders from users: Industry professionals are well versed in the differences but end users seem sometimes barely to know that it exists. This session will get to grips with an arcane part of the weather protection business that some think will be how nearly all weather products are settled in the future.

Moderator: Stuart Brown, Swiss Re Corporate Solutions
